

Discover 5 Unique Luxury Experiences in Africa with Mercury Jets

Africa – the land home to some of the world’s most endangered species, natural monuments, human history and exotic wildlife is on many people’s bucket list. Chartering a private flight to Africa and between destinations, allows for total convenience and visits to remote places. With luxurious seats and in-flight service, you can be sure to enjoy the iconic safari country without the hassle of commercial flights. From breakfasts with giraffes at the Giraffe Manor in Kenya, to the plains of the Serengeti, there is lots to do and see in Africa as you take a beautiful aerial voyage across this country with Mercury Jets.

Victoria Falls, Zambia and Zimbabwe

Mosi-oa-Tunya, meaning “the smoke that thunders” is what the locals call Victoria Falls, a beautiful waterfall on the Zambezi River at the border between Zambia and Zimbabwe. The best view of this natural spectacle is by helicopter, though many visit the falls in person. It is the only waterfall in the world that is more than a kilometer in length and is considered to be the largest in the world. The noise of the water can be heard from a distance of 25 miles, which is no wonder why the local tribes call it the way they do.

Airport: Victoria Falls Airport (VFA)

The Serengeti Migration, Tanzania

In the local Maasai language, Serengeti means “extended place.” It is also home to one of the most intricate and untouched ecosystems in the world. Here, you can take a private hot air balloon ride over the plains and toast to an unforgettable adventure with your significant other as you view the migration of Africa’s zebras, lions, rhinos, buffalos, cheetahs, leopards and elephants.

Airport: Kilimanjaro International Airport (JRO)

Giraffe Manor, Kenya

As one of Nairobi’s most iconic retreats, the historic Giraffe Manor dates to the 1930s and offers a unique opportunity to interact with the Rothschild giraffe that resides there. In the mornings or evenings, these giraffes join you, quite literally, for breakfast. Here, the Rothschild giraffes will poke their long necks into the windows of the dining area in search of a treat. The guests are able to directly interact with them and have a truly unique experience. It is the only place in the world where you can feed and photograph these giraffes over your tables, and view them from your bedroom window. Surrounding the Giraffe Manor, is a beautiful forest with over 180 different bird species that you can meet.

Airport: Wilson Airport (WIL) or Jomo Kenyatta International Airport (NBO)

Cairo, Egypt

Pay respect to the Pyramids of Giza after dark, where you can have a private dinner in beautifully furnished desert tents, take a camel ride to the Great Sphinx or have lunch at Amir Taz Palace like a sultan. You can also visit the Egyptian Museum, which is home to more than 12,000 ancient Egyptian artifacts, or see the replica of King Tutankhamun's tomb and the treasures found inside it at the Pharaonic Village.

Airport: Cairo International Airport (CAI)

Volcanoes National Park, Rwanda

Take a wildlife trek in search of golden monkeys and interact with gorilla researchers as you embark on a truly once-in-a-lifetime gorilla viewing experience where you can capture the beauty of these mountain creatures and the forests in which they inhabit. Spanning 100 square miles, the Volcanoes National Park is part of the Virunga volcano conservation region that was originally established to protect the mountain gorillas that were facing extinction due to poaching.

Airport: Kigali International Airport (KGL)

From the beautiful wildlife adventures and historical museums, these are just a few things you can do to have an unforgettable experience that only Africa can offer.
